
Cambridge Preliminary English Test Extra Students Book With Answers And Cd Rom (FULL)

the graduate school offers several types of academic assistantships in the english department. to begin, assistantships are available for graduate students who are enrolled in the english department. in order to receive assistance, you must be enrolled in an english course and be on the graduate student roster for that semester. students receive no stipend, but are provided with a desk, a phone, and other office supplies.

assistantships are offered for students who have completed their undergraduate degree and are accepted into the master of business administration program. all international applicants must demonstrate english language proficiency by submitting official test scores from one of the approved english language proficiency tests. ub has a program to help students from all over the world to meet the language requirement and to become eligible for admission to ub. this program is called esl 512, and it helps students to succeed in their studies at ub. there is a test every semester, and the exams are held in the evening to accommodate students who work during the day. students who get a score less than 120 on the academic english test or a score of 90 or below on the test preparation test are subject to an elp waiver from the university. students who cannot pass esl 512 within two semesters (fall and spring) after entering the university will not be permitted to teach or supervise undergraduate students. the english language institute communicates such failures to the academic department and works with them to help the student. directors of graduate study should work with international students to integrate them into the department and encourage them to speak the english language during the time they are registered for esl 512.

international students expected to have teaching duties and who achieve a score of 55 or 60 on the speak (from a total of 60 scored in five-point increments) are automatically certified to teach lecture, seminar, recitation and lab classes. those students with a score of 50 are given opportunity to demonstrate their communication skills by means of a teaching demonstration before representatives from the eli program and their own department, in order to determine eligibility to teach. a teaching demonstration is only at the request of the student's department and can be requested even for a student with a speak score below 50, if the department feels that the test results do not completely reflect the student's true abilities. the cambridge certificate in advanced english (cae) is the fourth level of the cambridge exams in english for speakers of other languages (esol). it is an advanced exam. although the level of language skills required is not as high as for the cambridge certificate of proficiency in english, cae recognizes the ability to communicate with confidence in english and deal with most aspects of everyday life. cae is seen by institutions of higher education in many countries as proof of adequate language skills for courses taught and assessed in english. almost all universities in the united kingdom and a growing number in the usa recognize cae, as do many employers throughout the world. alist of institutions and employers that recognize cae. studying for cae helps learners to improve their language skills and use them in a wide range of contexts. the examinations are based on realistic tasks, and indicate the ability to use the language in practical situations. successful candidates are able to participate in meetings and discussions, expressing opinions clearly and are able to understand and produce texts of various types, including business letters and reports. they will also be aware of the different styles of english appropriate to different situations.
